Historic Badin Golf Resort and Inn Opens for Business

Bert Seale, the new owner of the Historic Badin Golf Resort and Inn has a clear vision for the property's future. The South African native, now living at the Inn, intends to make it a destination resort.

"This will be a place for corporate executives to come and de-stress, a place for families to have fun together, and a place for the local community to enjoy," he says.

A swimming pool, roller blade rink, zip line, sunset cruises on Badin Lake, parasailing, horses in the old horse barn, and hot air balloon rides are all future possibilities in Seale's vision.

A Super Bowl party on Sunday will be a chance for the public to enjoy the Inn's newly renovated Johnny Palmer Bar and Grill. Liquor license is pending, but guests can bring their own bottle and enjoy burgers, wings and fries. Future plans include Pizza Night and Karaoke.

The golf club will be semi-private with social and golf memberships available from February 6, 2018. Members will have a sauna and small gym available for their use and the 19th Hole Lounge in the Inn's cellar.

Visitors are encouraged to visit the Inn and welcome the new owner.

Badin on the Move:

With seven new businesses having opened in 2017, and with the re-opening of the Historic Badin Golf Resort and Inn, Badin is certainly on the move.

New business ideas could include pontoon boat owners offering cruises on the lake or food truck owners setting up business at the boat landing and beach area. These would attract more tourists to the beautiful lake that lies in the town's back yard.

Help with business plans is available from Stanly Community College Small Business Center in downtown Albemarle.

Hike it! The series of hikes offered by Carolinas HealthCare System continues through the month of February. Hikes take place at Morrow Mountain State Park on Saturday mornings. A ranger-led bird hike will take place Saturday, February 3 from 10 am to 11:30 am. Meet at the boat house parking lot and enjoy a quiet stroll through the woods. Bring binoculars, a bird watcher's field guide and water. For the more energetic, hike the Sugar Loaf Mountain Trail on February 3 at 9 am. Meet at the Horse Trailer Parking Area.

Save the Dates: March 24- second annual Celtic Festival. May 18-Better Badin Golf Tournament.
